"Vox Sucha Impopopolits"

NAW, it ain't Latin. Neither is it Greek. It don't make sense nohow. We figured maybe if we put a screwy headline on this story you'd read this far. And as long as you have, we may as well break down and tell you.

This, folks, is a questionnaire. Not the usual stupid kind. Oh, no, this is about football. It's kind of tough, too. We asked an All-American player to answer it the other day and all we got when he finished was: "I didn't study when I went to college. I played football."

Another guy said he couldn't make head nor tail of it. Doing now. Straighten this out and get to work. Maybe it was because he read it upside down just like you're Here's 25 questions. Give yourself 4 points for each correct answer. Add them up and then decide for yourself how smart you are. We're not laying down any comparisons because last week one of the quintuplets got a hundred while our mother-in-law knocked over only a measly 32.

1. The first coach to make wide use of a play in which the guard carried the ball after receiving a lateral pass was: Knute Rockne, Pop Warner, Howard Jones, Tad Jones, Buck Jones.

2. The "watch charm" guard was introduced to modern football by: Notre Dame, Army, Alabama, Stanford, Yale. (No, silly, I won't give you one for your birthday.)

3. Within the past three years, the regulation football, like the dollar, was changed to make it: rounder, thinner, to increase the air pressure, decrease the air pressure.

4. The last Big Ten team to appear in a Rose Bowl game (that's a little affair they throw each year out in California) was: Minnesota, Purdue, Ohio State, Michigan, Illinois.

5. The end (no, sap, this isn't the finish of the questionnaire) who was famous for catching Benny Friedman's passes was: Muller, Kelly, Frankian, Oosterbaan.

6. The Harvard halfback who became famous for beating Yale by kicking five field goals in one afternoon was: Walter Eckersall, Eddie Casey, Charles Brickley, Eddie Mahan.

7. The famed Indian football player who later won the Olympic decathlon (don't ask for an explanation, we don't know what it is either; all we know is that he won it) was: Tom Thorpe, Chief Bender, Sitting Bull, Jim Thorpe, Barney Berlinger.

8. In referring to the "flying trapeze" you are correctly designating: the Howard Jones shift; the life of a head coach; a pet play of Bob Zuppke's; the Warner style of play.

9. The number of times out allowed a team in one half without incurring a penalty is: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

10. After an incomplete forward pass (getting tough, aren't they, pal?) time is out until: 1. The ball is returned to the spot of the previous down. 2. The referee recovers it. 3. The offensive team lines up again. 4. The offensive team puts the ball into play again.

11. The total number of times a player can re-enter a game is: 1, 2, 3, 4.

12. Besides the United States, football is also played in one of the following countries to some extent: England, Australia, Mexico, France, Japan.

13. In the 1924 Olympic Games (Zounds, are they back in again?) a group of American football players won the international Rugby championship, defeating in the finals: England, Australia, France, Canada, Italy.

14. The game in which two teams scored 66 points without either one winning was played between: Notre Dame-Ohio State; Yale-Dartmouth; California-Stanford; Alabama-Tulane; Vanderbilt-Tennessee.

15. The team with the best won and lost record in the Rose Bowl is: Alabama, U. S. C., Stanford, Pittsburgh, California.

16. The team with the best won and lost record in the U. S. A. over the last five-year period is: U. S. C., Minnesota, Stanford, Alabama, Fordham, Pittsburgh.

17. The only major football team with a Negro as captain of its 1937 football team is: N. Y. U., Iowa, Rutgers, Kansas, Colorado.

18. One of the following movie stars is a former All-American football player: George Bancroft, Mae West (aw, we know it, but we like to think about her), Nat Pendleton, Dixie Howell, Johnny Mack Brown.

19. One of the following was not a 1936 post-season game: Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Sun Bowl, Cherry Bowl, Bacardi Bowl.

20. All but one of the following men were football stars: Mickey Cochrane, Christy Mathewson, Edgar Allan Poe II, William Shakespeare, Henry Longfellow. (Fooled you that time, didn't we, pal?)

21. The football coach noted for his work in oil painting (oh, he promises to do his boys in oil when they miff a play) is: Pop Warner, Jock Sutherland, Jimmy Phelan, Bob Zuppke.

22. The "pogo pass" (we're pretty hot on a pogo stick) was introduced by: Clipper Smith, Andy Smith, Pop Warner, Knute Rockne, Andy Kerr.

23. The present day coach with the best won and lost record is: Bernie Bierman, Howard Jones, Frank Thomas, Pop Warner, Wallace Wade.

24. "Kick and wait for the breaks" was a slogan made popular by: California, Michigan, Riders of the Bronx Express at 8 A.M. (Sundays excepted); Harvard, Nebraska.

25. The member of the last U. S. Olympic (come on, fellows, let's lay off them things) track and field team who was an All-American football player in 1936 was: Forrest Towns, Glen Morris, Sam Francis, Jim Bansch.

Hollywood's Most Polished Voice

HERBERT MARSHALL* TELLS HOW THE THROAT-STRAIN OF ACTING CALLS FOR A LIGHT SMOKE

"In a recent scene," says Herbert Marshall, "I talk two minutes on the telephone. This scene took half a day to 'shoot'—four hours of painstaking voice shading. But even after scenes like this, I find that Luckies are always gentle on my throat. It's only common sense for an actor—or anyone else, for that matter—to want a light smoke."

The reason that Mr. Marshall—and you—find Luckies a light smoke is that the "Toasting" process takes out certain throat irritants found in all tobacco—even the finest.

And Luckies do use the finest tobacco. Sworn records show that among independent tobacco experts—auctioneers, buyers, warehousemen, etc.—Lucky Strike has twice as many exclusive smokers as have all other cigarettes combined.

In the impartial, honest judgment of those who spend their lives buying, selling and handling tobacco... who know tobacco best... it's Luckies—2 to 1.
