THE MEMORIAL MONUMENT

On the seaward side of the Academy grounds, the Memorial Monument looks toward the waters adjoining those on which many Cadets and Academy graduates gave their lives in World War II. To perpetuate the memory of our comrades who now lie beneath the sea, the Memorial Monument bears the inscription of their names. These are the names of the men who have built the Academy, not only in spirit, but in its actual construction.

Which Caribbean Cruise offers more fun?

Ask the Beachcomber!

He'll tell you the fun starts on the ss Atlantic and continues as you island-hop in the Caribbean this winter. Visit such exotic places as St. Thomas, Nassau, Aruba, San Juan, St. Croix, Curaçao, St. Maarten, Martinique, Bermuda, Barbados and Montego Bay in Jamaica. Minimum fares from $180 to $375 depending on the cruise. See your Travel Agent or

They are the spirit of Kings Point. The base of the Monument was purchased by funds derived from the Amphitrite Pool from 1942 to 1946.

In recognition and gratitude for their service, Cadets in passing the Memorial Monument shall render a salute, both when landing on the flagstone walk, and when leaving.

THE ULTIMATE DEFENSE

Knowledge is the ultimate defense if kept free to repel the evils that besiege mankind. To give knowledge the time to win, it must be protected—on its outer perimeter by weapons.

Weapons are created with knowledge, built with know-how, and produced in quantity with technical skills. Foremost in Grumman's plans for the future are men who have the imagination to create and the insight to solve.

KINGS POINT PLAYERS

Gordon Inouye from Hilo, Hawaii plays a rugged game as guard. He has been a steady performer on the team for the past four years and can always be counted on to give his best.

Senior Frank Menser has shown great spirit and drive while playing in the halfback position. Frank, hailing from Redstone Arsenal, Ala., is a forceful runner and leading pass receiver.

Stanley Wrona of North Chicago, Ill. is a rugged contender in the quarter-back slot. In his four years at the Academy, he has shown great ability in piloting the team.

Team captain, Bill Nakos has been playing a fine game as fullback this year. This rough senior, from Oceanside, N. Y. is a valuable asset to the team.

DREXEL INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Drexel Institute of Technology was founded in 1891 by Anthony J. Drexel as the Drexel Institute of Art, Science and Industry. The present name, adopted in 1936, is more descriptive of the school's current major function as a university.

The school, a non-sectarian and co-educational institution, is located in West Philadelphia with the metropolitan area comprising Drexel's greater campus.

Drexel consists of five educational units: the colleges of Business Administration, Home Economics and Engineering; the Graduate School of Library Science and the Evening College whose curricula includes engineering, science, industrial administration and architecture. The combined enrollment of these five units exceeds 10,000. Students come from 39 states and 46 foreign countries.

Drexel has, since 1919, instituted the Cooperative Education Program. This is a plan in which business and industry leaders enable students to acquire practical experience related to college studies through alternating periods of service in their organizations. Some 700 firms located in 20 states, employ Drexel students on cooperative assignments.

Drexel confers almost three times as many undergraduate engineering degrees as all of the other college in the Philadelphia area combined. This is nearly one-third of the practicing engineers in greater Philadelphia.

Senior guard Chuck Niessner is one of the finest linemen to play at Drexel in recent years. He is a quick pulling guard and his 5-11, 193 pound frame is hard to move on defense.

Good Student Performance

Depends on Planned Nutrition...

Whether in the classroom or on the athletic field, good student performance depends on balanced nutritious meals — served in a friendly fashion. Slater provides such a food service for the Merchant Marine Academy and over 160 other leading institutions. It is a challenging assignment, made pleasant by many fine associations with students and faculty. Best of luck, Mariners...Slater salutes you!
